The Policy attracts a fee of GHC 1.00 a month. This will be added to the total premium payable.

2. Waiting Period

There’s a six months waiting period for all Lives Assured before they can benefit from the benefits assured when the person dies of natural causes. But if death from natural causes occurs within the waiting period, fifty (50%) of the premiums paid in respect of that life is refundable to the Policyholder. This excludes Policy fee of GH¢1.00. If any lives are added after Policy inception the waiting period for that life will be 12 months and there will not be any refund of premiums. Examples of natural death are illness, stroke, heart attack, etc.

Table 4: Waiting Periods

Policyholder	6 months waiting period
Spouse	6 months waiting period
Children	6 months waiting period
Parents, In-Laws and Extended family	6 months waiting period from inception 9 months for lives aged 60 years and above 12 months waiting period if not added from inception

3. Inflation Protection

- The Policy once reinstated will be restored to the premium and benefit statuses it was in a day before it went into a lapsed state.
